One Day Get Away to Genetics Australia

Murray Dairy's Young Dairy Development Program together with Genetics Australia (GA) is organizing a "One Day Get Away to GA" on 11th May.

All dairy enthusiasts are invited to gain a unique insight into the facilities, resources and technology required to collect, process and deliver semen for artificial insemination on dairy farms in Australia.

Activities will include a tour of the facilities and bull farm at Parwan Park, Bacchus Marsh, including a genomic update, bull collection and semen processing. Participants will also meet the 2009 Bull Graduates and a barbecue lunch will be provided by Genetics Australia.

Bus transport will be provided from selected departure points:

- Kyabram/Tatura/Rochester
- Finley/Tocumwal/Shepparton
- Kerang/Cohuna/ Pyramid Hill

Cost for the day is $15.00 per person. RSVP is essential by Wednesday 6th May 2009 to Sarah Parker on 0418 883 250 or yddp@murraydairy.com.au

Further information including a flyer, bus pick up times and locations is available from the yddp website <http://www.yddp.org.au/events-held-by-yddp-northern.html>
